There has been a growth of corporate hospitals with specialized healthcare systems. Many corporate organizations have plans to build state-of-the-art hospitals. These mega hospitals would require specialized manpower to oversee and monitor their management. MBA healthcare professionals are trained for this specialized responsibility.

Healthcare operations call for specialization, team work and time-bound operations in a multi-tasking environment. Thus there is a demand for executives and managers to bring in professionalism in healthcare delivery.

The first batch of the highly successful Healthcare Administration Program conducted in association with Common Wealth Science and Technology Academy for Research (C STAR) got off to a great start on Saturday, 06 May 2017.

The genesis and milestones of TwinTech Academy Business Management were detailed with presentation by Prof R Ramakrishnan – Director Strategy of Twintech Academy.

Dr A Krishnamoorthi, Director, Dept of Radiology, Chettinad Health City Hospital and Research Institute, Chennai participated as Chief Guest and spoke during the inaugural talk on how this course is important in all walks of life covering every field and particular healthcare today.

Mr A Mahalingam of Twintech Academy briefed the uniqueness of the courses and the course is intend to impart modern management skills to healthcare professionals and also it seeks to offer them a comprehensive grounding in different aspects of healthcare management with a view to enhance their understanding of the contemporary issue in modern healthcare.

The course will be conducted over 12 weekends (Saturdays – between 2pm and 5 pm) at the TwinTech Academy`s Collaborated institution – Center for Medical Genetics premises at Taylors Road, Kilpauk, Chennai – 600 010

The first session on Human Resource Management in Healthcare was conducted by Prof R Ramakrishan, an industry professional and management faculty with a wide experience of 5 decades across industries and management teaching experience. His proven areas of expertise include marketing, HR and strategy and is also a visiting faculty in select B-schools and institutions. He has a wide gamut of training experience as well.

Mr Sai Shankar B, Manager - Business Analysis of TwinTech Academy proposed vote of thanks.
